

Veronica's workhorse, performed in more than 30 countries, is the show that has confirmed her as an international artist, winning prestigious awards both in Italy and abroad.

A variety of puppets are born from the feet and legs of the artist who, appealing to her femininity and charisma, fully expresses her talent as an actress and puppeteer, interpreting original stories adapted to all audiences.

Take a closer look and notice that one puppet face is the bottom of her foot!

The stories played by such expressive characters quickly steals the attention and lures the audience into the show and you almost feel as though you are watching an animated cartoon.

Everyone is welcome to this heartwarming puppet theatre transcending language and age of the audience.

The show is loved by children and acclaimed by adults. Guaranteed success!
